

BIOGRAPHY

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Vikneswaran is a pharmacy lecturer in Pharmacology Discipline at the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia. He received his Bachelor of Pharmacy (Hons) from the Universiti of Sains, Malaysia in 1999 and subsequently his Ph.D. from the same university in 2008. A pharmacist by profession, he has working experiences in the hospital, pharmaceutical manufacturing industry as well as retail pharmacy. He joined the School in the year 2008. His specialization is in Pharmacology and Phytochemistry. His research interest is on neurohormetic phytochemicals and cholinesterase inhibitors for neurodegenerative and lipid disorders.

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Vikneswaran currently holds the post of the Deputy Dean (Research, Postgraduates & Networking) of School of Pharmaceutical Sciences. He is a fellow researcher in the Natural Product Research Group which was recognised as one of the Research Thrust under the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences and an associate researcher at the Centre for Drug Research, Universiti Sains Malaysia. He is a registered pharmacist with the Pharmacy Board of Malaysia and an alternate member of the Drug Control Authority, Ministry of Health Malaysia.